Our Board Effectiveness Review validates board compliance and good practice, using an online internal self-evaluation process.

Quick and anonymous to complete, the approach explores those behaviours that may enrich board performance:

- Creates value through improved opportunity and risk management
- Facilitates collaboration with Executive & Senior Management layers
- Provides evidence of Board self-critique and ongoing development

Improves leadership and board member dynamics

Verifies core values are respected in the boardroom

Enhances strategic decision taking
